RE: Court of Appeals Number: 10-26-00132-CR
Trial Court Case Number: 32510

STYLE: Madyson Rae Hendricks aka Madyson Mascilli
v.
The State of Texas

On July 13, 2026, the Court received documents in the mail entitled "Emergency Appellate-Preservation Package." The documents purport to contain Appellant's signature as follows: "/s/ Madyson-Rae: Hendricks." Documents that are not filed electronically are required to be signed by the unrepresented party filing them. TEX. R. APP. P. 9.1(b). An electronic signature using "/s/" is not sufficient. Because the documents were not properly signed by the Appellant, they will not be filed and no action will be taken on them.

Further, Appellant is advised that this Court will not accept filings from any person other than the Appellant that is not a licensed attorney. Additionally, this Court will not correspond with third parties on Appellant's behalf unless an attorney licensed in Texas files a notice of representation with this Court.

Appellant is further advised that any document, motion, or brief submitted to this Court that is not electronically filed must be submitted by Appellant with an original signature that complies with the Rules of Appellate Procedure.

Sincerely,

Sherry Williamson
